

Sgt Tarbell (spelling ?), one of the non coms who runs the White House Security Switchboard, informed me that the USIB net as such has never been used as far as he knows. He also reported a rather low level of usage on a bilateral basis. This, of course, is not surprising since it is supposed to be used only in emergency.

It might be useful to have a test of the net by General Cabell.

C W W
Dec 59